The Yale Law & Policy Review is published twice each year by students of the Yale Law School. Third-class postage is paid at New Haven, Connecticut, and other mailing offices.

PUBLICATION POLICY

The Review provides a forum for the discussion of a range of contemporary legal and policy issues. Views expressed in the Review are those of the authors and do not reflect the views of the Editorial Members.

The Review publishes solicited and unsolicited articles, book reviews, and student-written pieces. Please submit unsolicited manuscripts to the Submissions Editors according to the procedures described on the Review's website. Due to the large volume of submissions that we receive, the Review does not accept submissions in hard copy or via facsimile.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND SPECIAL ISSUES

The subscription rate for institutions is $30.00 domestic and $40.00 foreign. The subscription rate for individuals is $20.00 domestic and $30.00 foreign. Payments received by institution checks will be billed at institution rates. Subscriptions are automatically renewed unless the Review receives a request for cancellation. Issues not received will be supplied free of charge only if a claim for nonreceipt is made within one year after the scheduled mailing date. All requests concerning subscriptions and special issues should be addressed to the Subscriptions Department, Yale Law & Policy Review, at the above address. Back issues for Volume 1 to the current issue are available from the Review, at the above address, for $20.00 domestic and $25.00 foreign, including postage.

COPYRIGHT AND REPRODUCTION

Articles published in the Review may be duplicated for classroom use provided that the author and the Yale Law & Policy Review are identified, each copy is distributed at or below cost with proper notice of the copyright affixed, and written notice of the use is given to the Managing Editor, Yale Law & Policy Review, at the above address or via e-mail.
