O.K. FOR KLEVELAND.

NO

IMPRISONMENT FOR DEBT.

In 1867, when the documents were in power in this State, they passed a bill abolishing imprisonment for debt. This year the same bill will pass again. The time and place of its passage is not yet decided. However, it is a step in the right direction. ROGER B. BROWNING, the present candidate for Governor, was then one of the first to oppose this bill. He is now one of its strongest supporters.

THE EFFECTS OF WIDE LEGISLATION.

It is said that the passage of this bill will have a beneficial effect on the whole country, and especially on the agriculturists and small farmers.

THE PRISONER FOR DEBT.

Look upon him through his dunghag glasses, and you will see the world's most wretched man. Come to him, and he will tell you his story. And if it be true and right, he will be released.

The Poor in Sorrow and Need.

A sad, sad story of woe, and sorrow, and pain. Famine, war, and pestilence have brought many to this place.

The Prisoner for Debt.

A humble man, a broken heart, a broken home. He has been imprisoned for debt, and now he stands before you, asking for mercy.

Let him be free, and let his heart be light.
