
Yale Law & Policy Review

Volume 19, Number 2, 2001

ARTICLES

- The Due Process Right To Seek Asylum in the United States:
The Immigration Dilemma and Constitutional Controversy
Kendall Coffey 303
- Piercing the Veil: William J. Brennan's Account of *Regents of the University of California v. Bakke
Lee Epstein and Jack Knight 341
- An Exception Swallows a Rule:
Police Authority To Search Incident to Arrest
Wayne A. Logan 381

BOOK REVIEW

- Law and New Technology: The Virtues of Muddling Through
Ivan K. Fong 443

TRIBUTE

- Charles Alan Wright and the Fragmentation of Federal Practice and Procedure
Carl Tobias 463

NOTES

“First, Do No Harm”—The Fiction of Legal Parental Consent to Genital-Normalizing Surgery on Intersexed Infants
Kishka-Kamari Ford 469

Is a Newscarrrier an Employee or an Independent Contractor? Deterring Abuse of the “Independent Contractor” Label via State Tort Claims
Jean Tom 489

CASE NOTES

Seeking Coherence in Doctrines of Party Election Expenditures
Scott Shuchart 515

Nguyen v. INS*: Is Sex Really More Important Now?
Clay M. West 525

