

LAW SCHOOL ALUMNI NOTES.

ELIOT WATROUS, EDITOR.

'83.—George Wakeman Wheeler was recently appointed to succeed himself as Judge of the Superior Court for eight years.

'88.—Robert W. Stewart of Pierre, S. D., is a member of the South Dakota Senate.

'89.—W. M. Babcock has dissolved his law partnership with Paul Jones and retains the business at 610 Temple Court, Minneapolis, Minn.

'90.—Robert C. Morris has formed a law partnership with W. Swayne, F. B. Swayne and H. T. Fay, under the firm name of Swayne, Swayne, Morris & Fay, with offices at 71 Broadway, New York City.

'91.—Robert J. Lewis was recently elected to the Pennsylvania Legislature from the Nineteenth District.

'91.—Albert H. Barclay has entered the law office of Case & Ely, New Haven.

'92.—L. R. Wilfley of St. Louis has accepted the appointment of Judge of the Court of First Instance in the Philippines and will sail for Manila early in April.

'96.—Dr. Tokichi Masao, legal adviser to the King of Siam, has published the draft by him of an elaborate law to regulate commercial partnerships, which is being printed in English at the Government Printing Office at Bangkok.

'97.—W. Vincent Robbins is English Supervisor in the Department of Education, Porto Rico.

'97.—Charles T. Peterson has recently entered into partnership with John A. Matthewman, under the firm name of Peterson & Matthewman, with offices at 15 Kaahmuanu street, Honolulu, T. H.

'97.—A. Maxcy Hiller is a candidate for the mayoralty of New Haven.

'97.—Thomas H. Cobbs has removed from Chicago to St. Louis, where he has formed a law partnership with John E. Bishop, 204-8 Laclede Building.

'97.—Chester L. Dane has recently been admitted to the Massachusetts Bar and is practicing law in the office of W. D. Northend, Salem, Mass.

'98.—Edward W. Lynch was admitted to the Connecticut Bar, January 5th.

1900.—Clayton Tyler was recently admitted to the Washington State Bar and has opened an office, under the firm name of Parker & Tyler, at Seattle, Wash.

1900.—Welles K. Stanley has formed a partnership with H. W. Crist, with offices at 804 Cuyahoga Building, Cleveland.

1900.—John A. Spafford has opened a law office at 991 Broad street, Bridgeport.