

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

'95—Judge C. A. Henry was unanimously re-elected president judge for Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, at the recent election, having been the candidate for the Republican, Democratic, Keystone, and Prohibition parties.

'97—The law firm of Buzzell, Ballard & Weston of Springfield, Mass., has dissolved partnership by mutual consent of the members. Harry A. Buzzell will keep the old offices in Room 421, Lyman Building, 374 Main Street, and will continue a law business of his own.

'03—William C. Rungee has been appointed Assistant Prosecuting Attorney of the Borough Court of the Town of Greenwich, Conn., for two years from June 1.

'05—M. Edwin Merwin is secretary to Justice Frank C. Laughlin, of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of New York. His address is 27 Madison Avenue, New York City.

'10—S. H. Bowman, Jr., is treasurer of the S. H. Bowman Lumber Company, Minneapolis, Minn.

'10—The address of Isadore Shapiro is 322-323 Brown-Marx Building, Birmingham, Ala., where he is a practicing lawyer.

'10—C. Wesley Winslow has been elected Assistant Prosecuting Attorney and Assistant Town Clerk of the borough of Winsted, Conn.

'11—John T. L. Hubbard has opened offices for the practice of law at 610 Security Building, Bridgeport, Conn.

'11—Howard N. Rogers was married on August 16, 1911 to Miss Anna Catharine Fautz at Nevada, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers are now living at 4108 Nicholas Street, Omaha, Nebraska. On November 22, Rogers was admitted to the Nebraska bar, and now has his office with James W. Hamilton and E. C. Page, attorneys, at 716-17 Omaha National Bank Building, Omaha, Nebraska.

Ex-'11—Roy K. Benner is practicing law at Hazleton, Pa., with office in the Kellner Building.

