

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

'47. 48 M.L.—Brigadier-General Henry Beebe Carrington died at his home in Hyde Park on October 25th. He was one of the oldest graduates of Yale and a man of great prominence in law, war and literature. General Carrington served through the Civil War and was one of the escorts of Abraham Lincoln on his journey from Springfield to Washington.

Ex-'53—Anthony Dey died at the home of his sister in New York City on October 11.

'83—Nathaniel T. Guernsey, who since his graduation has been practicing law in Des Moines, Iowa, will remove to New York about November 1st, to become associate counsel for the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. His address will be 15 Dey Street.

'84—John P. Kellogg has been elected a director of the Waterbury Savings Bank, Waterbury, Conn.

'96—John H. Musgrave of Minneapolis, Minn., is candidate for the office of county attorney on the Democratic ticket.

'97—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson of Salt Lake City on June 3d. She has been named Dorothy Jane Thompson. Mr. Thompson's address is 101 Continental Block, Salt Lake City.

'98—Morris Shepard, who is serving his sixth term as Representative in Congress, and is one of the radical leaders in the State, was chosen to succeed J. W. Bailey in the United States Senate at the Democratic primary in Texas.

Ex-'99—Ruffin G. Pleasant has been elected Attorney-General of the State of Louisiana. He was nominated at the Democratic Convention by the highest vote ever cast for a candidate for any State office.

'00—Walter D. Makepeace and Arthur D. Ells have formed a partnership for the general practice of law under the name of Makepeace & Ells, with offices in the Lilley Building, Waterbury, Conn. Makepeace is also one of the incorporators of the Old Lyme School, Inc., of Old Lyme, Conn.

'00—William Vincent Devitt died following a period of failing health at his house in Bridgeport, Conn., on October 11.

'00—Herbert D. Palmer has been appointed assistant general counsel of the Nickel Plate R. R. Co. His office will be in Room 704, Hickox Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

'02—John L. Gilson was elected to the office of Judge of Probate of New Haven during the recent election.

'08—Edwin L. Dryer wishes to announce that he will continue the general practice of the law with offices at 55 Liberty Street, New York City.

'08—The engagement is announced of Mrs. Maybelle Stevens Hills of Hartford, Conn., to Graham Forster of New York City.

'08—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey T. Clark on September 8. She has been named Ruth Whitney Clark.

'09—The engagement is announced of Miss Marguerite Loveland Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Calvert Smith of Mexico City, to Henry Ralph Ringe.

'09—Charles R. Crossett, Jr., of Wakefield, Mass., has been appointed a submaster at Dedham High School, Dedham, Mass.

'10—Isadore Shapiro this summer managed the campaign against the Waterworks Company, which means municipal ownership of the waterworks for Birmingham, Ala. He had an article in the Birmingham News for October 6th, on, "Who Shall It Be? Taft, Roosevelt, or Wilson?" He was on the stump for the Democratic party during the recent campaign. His address is Birmingham, Ala.

'11—Francis W. Smith has entered the Junior Class of the New York State Normal College at Albany. His address is 528 Fourth Avenue, North, Troy N. Y.

'11—Francis J. Breen has just opened an office at 220-1 Newfield Building, Bridgeport, Conn.

'11—Charles W Darling is practicing law at 87 Nassau Street, New York City.

'11—The present address of S. Edward Hannestad is 1226 Matloch Avenue, Honolulu, H. I.

Ex-'11—George R. Dexter attended the College of Liberal Arts and took a postgraduate course in the Law School of the University of Southern California, receiving the degree of L.L.M., in June. He was admitted to practice in the Federal and State Courts in June on motion. His residence address is 2408 Juliet Street, Los Angeles, and his business address is 610 Grosse Street, in that city.

'11—The engagement is announced of Miss Theresa Victorine Stanford, daughter of Mrs. George E. Stanford of New Haven, Conn., to Harold E. Tierney of Englewood, N. J. Tierney is now practicing law in New Jersey.

Ex-'11—G. Robert Dexter and Kimpton Ellis have formed a partnership for the general practice of the law with Raymond E. Hoyt, a Michigan Law School graduate, under the name of Dexter, Hoyt & Ellis, attorneys and counselors-at-law, Grosse Building, Los Angeles, Cal.

'12—Thomas Hewes is in the law offices of Robinson & Robinson, 11 Central Row, Hartford, Conn. His residence address is Farmington, Conn.

'12—Leonard O. Ryan has opened an office for the practice of law at Room 12, Pythian Building, Middletown, Conn.

'12—The marriage of Miss Harriet Isabel Butler, daughter of Mrs. Isabel Gordon Butler of New Haven, Conn., and Joseph A. Allard took place at St. Paul's Church, New Haven, Conn., on October 22.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Raymond Bentley of the Class of 1913 was elected Business Manager of The Shingle for the ensuing year.

J. F. Collins of the Class of 1914 was a Progressive candidate for Representative from Wallingford during the recent election.

A meeting of the Class of 1913 was held on October 23 to consider the abolition of all unnecessary class officers. Secretary Edgerton of the Law School spoke as an alumnus in favor of the plan. A committee consisting of J. J. MacCarthy, T. Dean and M. R. Diggs was appointed to consider the question and report at a meeting to be held on October 30. Pursuant to a report made by this committee and later adopted, at a meeting of the Senior Class held on Nov. 8, David L. Daggett was elected Secretary-Treasurer of the class and Cornelius J. Sullivan, Jr., was chosen as Editor-in-Chief of The Shingle, with Freeman Light and Irving Engle as Associate Editors. John J. McCarthy was elected Chairman of the Graduation Committee of five, the other members being Marshall Diggs, Thompson Dean, Frederick Smith and Edwin Purdy. Thomas C. Flood, 1913, a member of the LAW JOURNAL Board, was elected Judge of Probate for the district of Portland, Conn.