

1914

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

Follow this and additional works at: <http://digitalcommons.law.yale.edu/ylj>

Recommended Citation

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES, 23 Yale L.J. (1914).

Available at: <http://digitalcommons.law.yale.edu/ylj/vol23/iss6/7>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Yale Law School Legal Scholarship Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Yale Law Journal by an authorized editor of Yale Law School Legal Scholarship Repository. For more information, please contact julian.aiken@yale.edu.

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

The Chi Tau Kappa Society, of the Law School, to which only those are eligible who have been awarded honors at the end of each year, recently announced the following elections: Herschel Whitfield Arant of Opelika, Ala.; Benton Baker of Bismarck, N. D.; John Francis Collins of Wallingford, Conn.; Howard Wheeler Curtis of Stratford, Conn.; William Walter Meyer of Ada, Ohio; Frederick Merliss of New Haven, Conn.; Hiram Steelman of Hartford, Conn.; Peter Trenchi of New Haven, Conn.; George Freeman Turner of New Haven, Conn.

'79—Professor John K. Beach has been elected first vice-president of the Graduates Club of New Haven, Conn.

Henry Charles White, '81 L., died, from intestinal trouble, following a protracted period of ill health, in New Haven, Conn., on February 7. He was born in Utica, N. Y., on September 1, 1856, the son of Thomas Broughton and Catherine Lydia (Stewart) White. He entered the Yale Law School, from which he received the degree of LL.B. in 1883, and that of M.L. in 1884. He then began the practice of law in New Haven, where he continued until his death. For a number of years he was a member of the State Bar Examining Committee, and of the executive committee of the State Bar Association. From 1886 to 1893 he was a lecturer in political science at Yale. On May 5, 1903, he was married in New York City, to Lucy Sophia, daughter of Gustav and Catherine Elizabeth (von Post) Schwab, who survives him.

'84—William S. Pardee was re-elected president of the Yale Alumni Association of New Haven at the meeting held on February 16.

'87—Leonard M. Daggett is a member of the committee on admissions of the Graduates Club of New Haven, Conn.

'89—At the meeting of the Yale Alumni Association of Washington, D. C., held on January 17, James H. Hayden was re-elected president.

'91—The death of Susumu Uchida on August 19, 1912, has not previously been reported in these columns.

'91—Porter B. Godard is on the law staff of the Board of Education of Kansas City, Mo., and has been very active in the board's endeavors to remove saloons from the neighborhood of the city schools.

'91—George E. Hill has been elected president of the Yale Association of Class Secretaries.

'92—Morgan John Flaherty died, from pneumonia, in Detroit, Mich., on February 7.

'96—Walter P. Judson has moved his offices to 185 Church Street, New Haven, Conn.

'96—Edmund H. McVey is chairman of the committee for drawing up the platform of the Nonpartisan Commission Government League of Kansas City, Mo. He may be addressed at 306 Keith and Perry Building, that city.

'96—Joseph C. Sweeney has assumed the position of general attorney for the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, with headquarters in New Haven, and offices in New York, Boston, and Providence.

'97—At the meeting of the Kentucky Yale Alumni Association held on January 15, Richard C. Stoll was elected a vice-president.

'97—Benjamin I. Spock, who has been attorney for Connecticut for the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company since January 1, 1909, has been made counsel for that state.

'01—Charles L. Burnham has changed his residence from 47 East Fifty-seventh Street, New York City, to 471 Pequot Avenue, New London, Conn.

'02 M.L.—Michael B. Hurley, '02 M.L., lately engaged in corporation, irrigation, and mining practice in Colorado and Martin J. Hurley, '07 M.L., lately of the general claim department of the Great Northern Railway Company, have formed a co-partnership under the firm name of Hurley & Hurley, and have opened law offices in the Security Bank Building, Minneapolis, Minn.

Horace J. Fenton, '99 and '04 L., who is now a instructor at the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., has published an "Introductory Treatise on Constitutional Law," which is "designed for use at the Naval Academy and in other schools where the principles of the Constitution are studied."

'04—Henry Cotheal Andrews died, after a long illness, at Fishkill, N. Y., on January 16. The son of James Watson and Laura Hoppock (Cotheal) Andrews, he was born on June 5, 1877, in Fishkill, N. Y. He was given the degree of M.A. in 1901, and then entered the Yale Law School, from which he was graduated in 1904. After a short time in New York City, he started the general practice of law in Jacksonville. He was married in Albany, Ga., on July 9, 1907, to Caroline W. Consart, daughter of John Consart of that place. They had three daughters, all of whom, with Mrs. Andrews, survive him.

'03—George Woodruff, president of the First National Bank of Joliet, Ill., delivered an address on "Collecting Checks Under the Currency Law," before the Western Economic Society, at Chicago, on March 13.

'05—The marriage of Ethel Helen, daughter of Mrs. Frederick Nicklas of New York City, and Julius French Miller took place in St. Agnes' Chapel, New York City, on February 4.

'08—Leonard W. Baker's permanent address is South Lincoln, Mass.

'08—The present address of Cramer C. Hegeman is 155 Washington Street, South Norwalk, Conn.

'09—Jesse F. Anderson, who is connected with the city counselor's office in Kansas City, Mo., may be addressed at 3222 Washington Street.

'09—Alfred W. Andrews is now associated with Mr. Floyd K. Diefendorf in the general practice of law, with offices at 411 Park Row, New York City. His home address is 144 Montague Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

'10—George G. Mead has been appointed assistant attorney for the city of Scranton, Pa.

'10—John W. Mason, Jr., is associated with his father in the practice of law at 504 Jacobs Building, Fairmont, W. Va.

'11—Frank C. Wilkinson has been indorsed as a Democratic candidate for the state legislature from the Kansas City district. His present address is 912 Commerce Building, Kansas City, Mo.

'11—The marriage of Nellie A. Lyons of Norwich, Conn., and Eugene F. Farley took place in St. Patrick's Church, Norwich, on January 31. They will make their home in New Haven, Conn., where Farley is engaged in the practice of law at 865 Chapel Street.

'11—Fred M. Lyon may be now addressed at 1019 Grand Avenue, Kansas City, Mo.