1949

BOOKS RECEIVED
case'; p. 175: 'en ascun case' is properly 'sometimes': 'sometimes the king can enter and yet a common person shall be put to his action, and sometimes a common person has no remedy, as if the tenant of the king dies without heir etc.'; p. 178: a reference to Cal. Pat. Rolls, Henry VII, 1494–1509, p. 21 would seem more useful than the note printed; p. 189: 'foriuger de lour office'.

S. E. THORNE†

BOOKS RECEIVED

